

MAYOR'S DIARY
31 AUGUST - 6 SEPTEMBER

Monday 31 August

- Bank Holiday – cut the hedge!

Tuesday 1 September

- Received the welcome news that Dunstable had been recognised as the best local authority in this year's virtual Anglia in Bloom awards. Well done to our Head of Grounds and Environmental Services and the Grounds staff!
- Briefing for CBC and DTC councillors about the town centre developments – Court Drive (including the Health Hub), Vernon Place, former Magistrates' Court and Ambulance Station, High Street.

Wednesday 2 September

- Zoom meeting for Ashton Almshouse Charity – accounts, works/repairs, process for any future vacancy

Thursday 3 September

- Meeting to determine possible arrangements for Remembrance Sunday taking into account the Covid-19 regulations about large gatherings

Saturday 5 September

- Zoom up-date meeting with immediate fellow councillors
- The Mayoress and I were pleased to attend the Incredible Edible 'Come 'n Grow' event in Katherine Drive; welcomed by Sahira Ward (and volunteers) who was the inspiration in 2013 for this continuing community project. Thanks to Cllr. John Chatterley for taking a number of photographs.

Sunday 6 September

- Finalised article about Incredible Edible visit for the Gazette with John Chatterley's photos
