

Grove House Weddings

To have and to hold

Congratulations on your engagement.

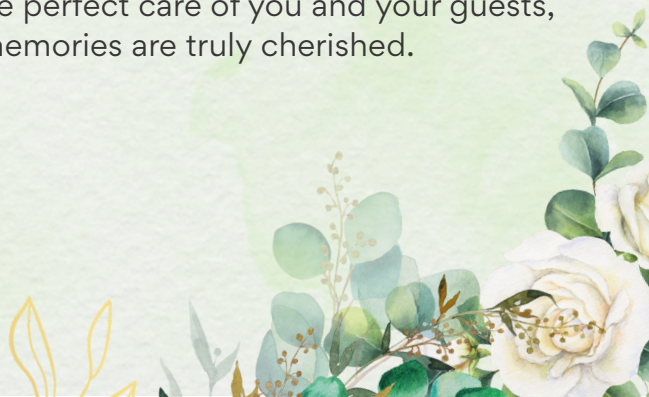

We would like to thank you for enquiring about your forthcoming wedding at Grove House.

The beautiful Grade II listed Grove House, centrally located in Dunstable, was built in 1747 and started life as a public house, known as the Duke of Bedford's Arms, before being converted to a private residence in the 18th century.

The Ceremony Room is licensed for civil ceremonies and offers stunning views over the award-winning Grove House Gardens. It is the perfect backdrop for your day, whether you desire a traditional ceremony, a civil partnership, a romantic twilight wedding, or an outdoor celebration in the gardens.

For a truly intimate exchange of vows, The Bedford Room perfectly accommodates the happy couple and up to four guests.

From your initial enquiry through to the wedding day itself, our professional team will take perfect care of you and your guests, ensuring your memories are truly cherished.
